

Anna Marin
Evaluation and Strategy Coach
anna@pieorg.org

Anna Marin joins PIE with over a decade of strategic thinking, planning, and problem solving in the nonprofit social impact sector. She has been a campaign director, fund developer, legislative advocate, and community engagement enthusiast centered mainly on immigrant rights and healthcare advocacy.

Anna brings expertise in racial, gender, and economic equity initiatives, and has worked as a DEI (Diversity, Equity, Inclusion) coach with the Evanston/Skokie School District 65 and other clients. As the acting co-chair of the Cicero Community Collaborative Welcoming Committee, she led a Census 2020 project to increase the participation from hard-to-count populations and sat on the Cook County Religious and Community Organizations census committee. She also co-leads the Antiracism Task Force to address structural inequities within the Collaborative and in the greater Cicero area.

She is a 2017 cohort member of the Cultivate: Women of Color Leadership Program, a joint effort of Crossroads Fund and other Chicago foundations, and continues professional development opportunities with other powerful WOC leaders. Anna is fluent in Spanish, and has abilities in Portuguese and Arabic from her experiences living abroad in Salvador, Brazil, and Alexandria, Egypt. She pursued Ph.D. coursework in Comparative Literature at the University of Texas at Austin, received her M.A. in Comparative Literature at San Diego State University, and received her B.A. at DePaul University in Secondary English Education.
